

The map displays the Vuorentausta area, which is a residential and commercial district in Helsinki. The central part of the map is dominated by the Vuorentausta metro station and its surrounding infrastructure. To the northwest, the Pohjajärvi lake is visible, and to the northeast, the Teivaalanharju area is shown. The Haukiluoma area is located to the south. The map includes a detailed street network, with major roads like Lehtokatu and Lehtotie. Various land parcels are outlined and labeled with numbers and letters, indicating different types of land use and ownership. The map also shows the location of the Vuorentausta metro station and the surrounding residential and commercial areas.

The map displays the Vuorentausta area, which is a residential and commercial district in Helsinki. The central part of the map is dominated by the Vuorentausta metro station and its surrounding infrastructure. To the northwest, the Pohjajärvi lake is visible, and to the northeast, the Teivaalanharju area is shown. The Haukiluoma area is located to the south. The map includes a detailed street network, with major roads like Lehtokatu, Rinkokatu, and Lehtikatu. Various land parcels are outlined and labeled with numbers and codes, indicating different types of land use and ownership. The map also shows the location of the Vuorentausta metro station and the surrounding residential and commercial areas.

The map displays the Vuorentausta area, which is a residential and commercial district in Helsinki. The central part of the map is dominated by the Vuorentausta metro station and its surrounding infrastructure. To the northwest, the Pohjajärvi lake is visible, and to the northeast, the Teivaalanharju area is shown. The Haukiluoma area is located to the south. The map includes a detailed street network, with major roads like Mastontie and Pohjantie running through the area. Various land parcels are outlined and labeled with numbers and codes, indicating different types of land use and ownership. The map also shows the location of the Vuorentausta metro station and the surrounding residential and commercial areas.

The map displays the Vuorentausta area, showing a network of streets and land parcels. Key locations include Pohjajärvi to the northwest, Teivaalanharju to the northeast, and Haukiluoma to the south. The map highlights several specific parcels, likely related to the proposed development, with labels such as VL-8, AO-1, and AO-2. The Vuorentausta metro station is also indicated. The map is a detailed cadastral plan, showing property boundaries and land use designations.

[illegible]